

STRATEGIC LEADERS FORUM (SLF) LUNCHEON

Where Brands Put Themselves Ahead.

At the heart of the 2026 NGALA Conference lies a single, high-value engagement built for sponsors who want meaningful presence—not just attendance. The Strategic Leaders Forum luncheon is the only curated environment where premier partners gain direct, focused access to Louisiana’s senior leadership in a setting purpose-built for authentic conversation and elevated visibility. Bottom Line: There’s one room at the 2026 NGALA Conference where everyone wants to be—and only a few will be. The Strategic Leaders Forum luncheon IS that room.

Pronounced “SELF” — The Luncheon Where Your Company Places Itself in the Conference’s Most Exclusive Room

A Luncheon in Name — A High-Impact Platform in Reality

The SLF (“Self”) luncheon is not a standard conference meal. It is a premium, invitation-only engagement environment where select premier sponsors join Louisiana’s senior Army and Air leaders for focused, purposeful conversation. It’s the only luncheon where the agenda isn’t food—it’s visibility, connection, and presence.

Platinum Sponsors and above Take the Microphone

At the SLF luncheon, Platinum-level sponsors and above receive their own speaking opportunity—a direct moment to address a captive audience of key strategic senior leaders. This is center stage, full attention, no competing noise. A rare, high-value opportunity for your company to showcase solutions, capabilities, and mission alignment to the Guard’s top leadership.

Where Your Company Puts “Self” Into the SLF

The SLF is intentionally intimate, highly selective, and engineered for meaningful, face-to-face engagement. When your organization enters that room, it puts itself in front of the people who drive operational priorities and shape future requirements. Only a small number of sponsors even qualify for access—and only Platinum partners or above lead the conversation.

Don’t Let This Opportunity Pass You By

This is the most exclusive branding opportunity of the entire conference—a concentrated environment where leaders are present, engaged, and receptive. The SLF luncheon isn’t something you attend in passing...it’s the moment other companies wish they were in.

Platinum sponsorship isn’t just a tier.

It’s your company placing itself at the heart of the 2026 NGALA Conference.
